Plan Ahead

Stuck for something to do this weekend? Have some free time midweek? From Moroccan cooking in Tenafly to airplane rides at Lincoln Park Airport, we've got you covered.

Time Lapse Dance Ensemble's Ice Cycle

Ice Cycle is a dance expressing the fragility and dynamism of the Arctic icescape using artistry to illustrate climate change. The piece is inspired by choreographer Jody Sperling's experience dancing on Arctic polar sea ice. For this performance, Time Lapse Dance Ensemble will collaborate with composer Matthew Burtner, a pioneer in eco-acoustics, to include ice-inflected sounds to create music. Time Lapse Dance Ensemble's Ice Cycle will be performed April 4 at 12:30 p.m. at Shea Center for Performing Arts at William Paterson University, 300 Pompton Road, Wayne. Tickets are $5. For more information, call 973-720-2371 or visit wp-presents.org.

Moroccan cooking on April 1

Chef Merav Dahan will demonstrate how to make Moroccan dishes on April 1, from 8 to 10 p.m. at Kaplen JCC on the Palisades, 411 E. Clinton Ave., Tenafly. Participants will learn how to prepare dishes, such as Tagine chicken with vegetables, dried fruit couscous, matbucha and eggplant Baladi salads with Gribetz cookies and mint tea. Merav will offer tricks and tidbits while attendees enjoy sampling each dish. She is the founder of Merav's Cuisine cooking blog and has been teaching the art of preparing healthy kosher recipes for over a decade. Tickets are $54 members; $62 non-members. For more information, visit jccotp.org.

Free airplane rides for kids

Federally licensed, experienced pilots from the local area will donate their time to give free airplane rides to kids ages 8 to 17 on March 31, from 9 a.m. to noon at Lincoln Park Airport, Lincoln Park, weather permitting. This Young Eagles Flight Rally is part of an EAA program that has flown over 2 million kids worldwide over the last 20 years in an effort to get the younger generation interested in aviation. Parents/guardians must accompany children to the airport and fill out and sign the waiver agreement and flight registration record forms. More detailed information can be found on EAA Chapter 501's website at eaa501.org.

Experience Hendrix tour at NJPAC

Celebrate the music and legacy of guitar great Jimi Hendrix as the Experience Hendrix tour heads out on the road March 29 at 8 p.m. at New Jersey Performing Arts Center, 1 Center St., Newark. Participating artists will perform all their favorite signature songs by Hendrix, including "Little Wing," "Fire," "Purple Haze" and "Voodoo Child (Slight Return)." Tickets are $53 to $133.
